UPSET UNLIKELY IN BIG GAME

Melville turned last Sunday's "Match of the day" clash with Cockburn into a one-sided affair with a convincing 24.17 to 7.6 win over the port team.

After Cockburn's impressive victory over Southern Port-Hamilton the previous week, it was expected that Melville would face a serious threat to their unbeaten record this season.

But after a competitive first half performance from Cockburn, Melville slipped into top gear and cruised away with the match.

Southern Port had an enormous win over Midland last Sunday, and they could not have hoped for a better warm-up for their big clash with Melville today. Southern Port Coach Gary Greer was naturally delighted with his team's score of 37.27 to Midland's 4.2.

In the second half of the match Southern Port added an amazing 24 goals to Midland's one.

In the other game last week, Mosman Park had a tough struggle on their hands against an enthusiastic and determined Belmont. At one stage during the third quarter, Belmont only trailed by a goal. But Mosman Park managed to get a break on their opposition in the closing stages and won 26.16 to 9.9.

The big question today, is can Southern Port upset, the seemingly invincible Melville, at Melville Reserve? This should be an excellent tussle with some outstanding individual contests. Perhaps the most important duel will be between Melville centreman Gareth Stewart and Southern Port's Sam Maskos. Both were the outstanding players in their respective matches last Sunday and their mid-field contest today should be a delight to watch.

Melville Coach Tony Micale thought his team defensive work was superb and he will be looking for a similar performance from players such as Steve Vinci, Con Tripi, John Tame and Mark Smith.

Melville will need to keep an eye on Southern Port key forward Chris Portelli and Wayne Johnson. This will be an absorbing match, but Melville can be expected to maintain their unbeaten record.

Cockburn will want to avenge their thrashing last week, when they meet Mosman Park at Tom Perrott Reserve today. But Cockburn cannot expect to beat Mosman Park as easily as they did in the first round.

Mosman Park have overcome most of their injury problems and have a talented team of players of the calibre of Barry Haydinger, Joe Madej, Ian Earl, Rob Argoon and Steve Rogers.

Cockburn will again look to the brilliance of centre-half-back Randall Prowse, ruck-rover Danny Gore, centreman Paul Zuvella, full-forward Roy Koeberl and centre-half-forward Trevor Brickhill.

It's difficult to pick the outcome of this encounter, but Mosman Park may surprise Cockburn and cause a minor upset.

This weeks excellent round of fixtures finishes with the game between Swan Valley and Belmont at Swan Valley Sportsmans Oval. Both teams have shown encouraging improvement in recent weeks, but Swan Valley have been a shade more impressive and may just have the edge today.

UMPIRES PROFILE GRAEME WHITE

Whitey is known as our veteran, however at the tender age of 42 he just keeps on coming back year after year.

His umpiring this year is one of maturity and an excellent example to any youngster thinking of taking on field umpiring. He has already done 100 games with us and I'm sure that the 150 figure will entice him to return next year.

Married to understanding wife Bernice with 2 sons, the whole family has always been heavily involved in sport. Before joining the W.A.F.A Graeme's umpired 100 with the Amateurs (WAAFL) after playing 250 games with the Wembley Amateur Football Club. He and his wife's summer is taken up with baseball, having 2 sons involved. Both have represented Australia and W.A. in the under 18's and recently his older son Chris represented W.A. in the Claxton Shield and the games against Japan. May I suggest they continue to enjoy the success that only hard work brings.

COCKBURN CHASE LEADERS

Today our teams play Mosman Park in the third hard game for our club in three weeks. Rather than be weary from successive hard games our players should now have developed a mental toughness. This enables a team to win even when its players are not playing at the top of their abilities.

Melville's league team have got this type of toughness, which allows them to coast when the opposition is not hard but they can then turn it on when put under pressure. By finals time I'm sure all our players will have this approach to the game.

Congratulations to Phil Gerovich and his team for playing last weeks game right out to the final siren. The spirit his team shows is now an inspiration to the colts and league sides. Lawrence Hart and Ian Warbuton gave the team plenty of drive. Their individual performances showed that they are capable of forcing their way into the league side. Ron Kawacki played his usual splendid game in defence which must also stamp him as a league contender.

In the colts game, Richard Offer and Rodney Davies never admitted defeat and not only did both players gain a bundle of kicks but they also contested the hard ball, which showed their courage to the fullest. Doug Searle played another good game and he has now emerged as one of the competition's most consistent players.

Neil McCarthy and Randall Prowse carried on with their good form to again be among the best players last week. "Macka" has become a bugbear to all opposing full-forwards this year. His judgement of the play, plus his determination to get front position, are an example to all other players in the club. Danny Gore gave a great display in the league after having come up from the reserves in recent weeks.

On the social side, the club is definitely holding a Cabaret in three weeks time, on the weekend that we have a bye. All players and supporters should get in early for their tickets because it promises to be a night to remember.

Three of the club's former players who are relatives of our trainer Ron Crocker were interested spectators at last weeks games. Dave King, Bob Gilchrist and Barry Crocker were all conspicuous on the sidelines and it may not be too long before we see them take the field for the club.

"Three teams in the four in '84.

Umpires Corner

Umps Are Entertained

BY G. ROWE

Thanks to all those umpires who attended training last week at Perry Lakes and then went onto the show at the Floreat. Thanks to the Floreat Hotel for putting on a top meal at a reasonable price. It helped to make it a really enjoyable night. We plan to have a couple of more nights there towards the end of the year.

Bit disappointed with a couple of umpires who didn't front. Lets get behind Dick Hunter and his Committee and give full support. Don't forget its for your benefit. Would all umpires see Wally Pausin for their 100 club tickets. You only have to sell three, that means you take one and sell two, not all that hard, lets have no excuses.

Joe Caputi Plays 200th Game Today

Joe Caputi is today playing his 200th game for the club. 38 years old he has been a Southern Port player ever since the club was formed in 1968. Joe was captain of the Reserves Grand Final team who defeated Swan Valley by one point in 1981, and was also the club Fairest and Best the same year.

Made a life-member of Southern Port in 1980, the only club Joe has ever played for.

From all the players, committee and our many loyal supporters may we take this opportunity to wish Joe all the best for the coming games and hope you will remain a member and friend for many years to come.

Please remember the "Crazy Night on June 29th and the fund raising raffle for funding the trip to the V.F.L. Grand Final later in the year.

RAMS ON TOP TO STAY

COLTS

Congratulations fellas for avenging our first round defeat by beating Cockburn convincingly. Lets get behind Kim Davey and all get to training. There's a premiership out there for the taking.

BEST PLAYERS: Russell Baxter, Tony Regan, P. Bowser.

RESERVES

Dads Army had an attitude problem last week and were lucky to escape with a draw. Remember fellas you don't just win by going out on the oval. Darren "Tim Watson" Bunce is back to his best - hang in there Buncey, it won't be long. Good to see "Bull" look after the "Drumstick" man's welfare after a nasty incident. Welcome back to "Dr Hook" Quinn after a spell on the runners bench.

LEAGUE

An excellent effort from the league side this week. A top performance by all players. Glad to notice that our discipline is improving. However we must not sit back and rest on our laurels. Every week is a new challenge to be met and conquered.

"Goldilocks" Stewart put in another good one as did "Cramps" Vinci. "Stud" Regan found his goal kicking boots at last. Other solid performers Dashing Dave Cox. rumour has it he's been shifted from the wing, "Putty Nose", "Smitty", "Mainliner", "Dobby". Another nickname for C.C. "Mack Truck". Hurry up Steiger - the seasons running out.

Thanks to the Cockburn club for their hospitality after the game. All grades are looking forward to todays clash against Southern Port-Hamilton, and we would like to extend an invitation to all players, wives, etc to join us in drinks after the game.

SWAN VALLEY LOOK FOR WIN

Last week was a bye but the week before we played Midland. Both teams had good victories and it was great to see that old team spirit in the club again. The Reserves played well all day and would have won by more if the kicking had been straight. the team is shaping up well and if we can string a few wins together, we will give the top sides a real shake.

The league side had a good win, but not without its moments. We continue to fade in the second quarter but to the players credit they teamed together and pulled it off. Players who contributed were; Doug Pendlebury, Shane Hampson, Peter Netherway, Greg Johnson, John Zaknich, Bruno Remigio and Greg Coverley.

Today we play Belmont in what will be a tough encounter, in both grades and provided we support each other and play football to our fullest capabilities then both teams should win
